

CHISHOLM PIONEERS IN COLONIAL
NEW ZEALAND

Initial studies into their Background, migration and settlement

Chisholm

Audrey Barney

In co-operation with Members of the New Zealand Clan Chisholm Society

CONTENTS

Foreword by Dr. Roger Chisholm-Batten, President, Clan Chisholm Society	iii
Acknowledgements	iv
Contents	vi
Illustrations	viii
Introduction	1
Chapter 1 Pre 1840s The early comers.....	3
(a) 1826 J.M. Chisholm: Early Kororarere settler	4
Chapter 2 The New Zealand Company men	7
(a) 1841 John Chisholm : who took his chance and moved on.....	9
(b) 1841 Adam Chisholm : fighter for justice	11
Chapter 3 For their family’s future: Chisholm parents with teenagers leave their Homeland	17
(a) 1854 Robert Chisholm Esq. arrives from Edinburgh	19
Surprising but true : The Chisholm role in the original NZ Herald	26
Bookmark 1 : Which Chisholm family cared for the traveller?	27
(b) 1858 Duncan and Elizabeth leave London for Nelson
(Jocelyn Chisholm)	29
Landmark 1 : “Chisholm” at Queen Mary Hospital, Hamner Springs
(Jocelyn Chisholm)	37
(c) 1858 John, Jean and family to Dunedin (Michael and Fay Chisholm)	38
Landmark 2 : Scoullar and Chisholm : Furniture Makers of Dunedin
(Michael Chisholm)	45
Surprising but true 2 . “Puna Weta”: the house that Robert Chisholm Built
(Michael Chisholm)	46
Landmark 3 : Chisholm Links	47
(d) 1863 William and Margaret settle at Kaurihorore under the 40-acre scheme	48
(e) 1875 William and Marion came to Dunedin for “A fine healthy country”
(Jessie Small)	57
(f) 1883 John and Barbara come from Southern Scotland to begin 100 years of
“Chisholm farming” in the Turakina/Huntermans area	63
Bookmark 2 : The drove roads from the Kintail through to Glen Affric	67
(g) 1884 John, Ann and the girls from the Glens	68
Chapter 4 The Australian connections	73
(a) 1854 Joseph Wilson Chisholm from the Yorkshire coalfields reaches Wellington	74
Surprising but true 3 : Walter Chisholm’s Bridge St home in Nelson	82
(b) 1858 William Chisholm and Jane Kinghorne provide “Romance across the Tasman
(Carolyn Chown)	84
(c) 1858 James Chisholm when widowed in Australia, moves to Wellington
with his three daughters and a son-in-law	87
(d) 1861 Angus and Donald Chisholm, then later, Marion Chisholm sail
“Over the sea from Skye”	92
(e) 1861 Goldminers pour in from Australia	100

(f) 1863	John Chisholm follows his sister Jessie Main from Crichton to Victoria Victoria to Otago	106
	Bookmark: Heaney's ride	110
(g) 1867	Walter and Rachel Chisholm live in Hokitika at the end of the goldrush	111
(h) 1897	William and Martha Chisholm desert Tasmania for Dunedin	116
Chapter 5	Chisholms come in chain migration to New Zealand	120
(a) 1860-1870	The Glenurquhart seven arrive in the South	121
(b) 1862-1871	From Inverness and Morayshire they came: a story of multiple migration (Lorraine Salter)	129
	Landmark 4: The South honours its Chisholm pioneers	140
(c) 1863-1906	From Haddington to Dunedin: the Reunion of three of the children of Benjamin Chisholm in New Zealand (Yvonne Chisholm)	142
Chapter 6	What a chance for a single Chisholm man	151
(a) 1862	Archibald: from the mountains of Kintail (Margaret Whitford)	152
	Surprising but true 4: Finding Archie Chisholm	159
(b) 1865	Donald: Molesworth St grocer	164
(c) 1871	Simon and Allan arrive from Breakachy: Breakachy? Where's that? (Margaret Playle)	166
(d) 1874	Hugh: shepherd turned policeman	172
(e) 1875	John and Hugh: country blacksmiths (John and Edna Chisholm)	174
	Bookmark 4: John: "Bush country" parson (Jocelyn Chisholm)	181
(f) 1888	Hugh Marshall: A Chisholm from the original Border Chisholme Homeland	182
Chapter 7	Travelling the world for a man	185
(a) 1856	Atalanta Chisholm: Ventures across the world	186
(b) 1862	Marion Chisholm of Skye: a woman of mysteries	187
(c) 1871	Catherine Chisholm: World traveller for her man	188
Chapter 8	Other Chisholms known to have been in New Zealand in the colonial period	192
	Appendix 1: Gold, fine gold. Unknown Chisholms who came in from Australia during the 1860's goldrush	193
	Appendix 2: Other Chisholms known to have been in NZ in the 19th century	195
Chapter 9	Epilogue: Big Bill Chisholm of Molesworth: a legend in his lifetime	197
Contributors	200
Footnotes	202
Bibliography	214
Index	218

*"We owe respect to the living;
To the dead we owe only the truth"*

(Francois Voltaire: Oeuvres, 1785 v.1 p.15n)